Dear Ms. Dessa,

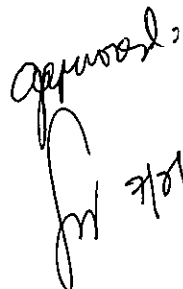

I'am writing to formally notify you that I'am resigning from my current position as Procurement Assistant effective June 24, 2021 until the last day of my employment on July 24, 2021. I would like to offer my sincere thank you for this opportunity you have given to me to grow and for making my time a productive one.

I have really enjoyed my time with this company and collaborating with this team. Thank you for all your assistance during my training period. Please let me know how can I help during the transition duties.

Again, Thank you for all of the support and oppurtunity. I wish you and the company all the best for the future.

Sincerely,

Abbie Orpia
